HORSE DROWNED.-Messrs. Leyda & Smith, agents of the Wilson Sewing Ma-chine in this city, had a valuable horse drowned in the river, yesterday. The animal was attached to a fine new wagon (the turnout was worth about $350) and was being driven to the river to be watered. Just before reaching the water's edge an empty beer keg from a wagon on the wharf above, came rolling towards the horse, at which he took fright and plunged into the river. He was soon beast evening fears that he would not redown. A reward has been offered for the ecovery of the wagor

> Hope which has been running in the trade between this city and Matamoras, O., for several years, was sold a few days since to A. W. Williamson, of Portsmouth O. for $3,000. The Hope is lying at the foot of Quincy street, undergoing repairs, and is to be delivered to her new owners
